

Lourens D Verweij - New Chairman, LSHAccess Foundation

Lourens D Verweij is dedicated to make exceptional Life Sciences & Healthcare ventures thrive and succeed. Trained as a Management Consultant and having worked as Director, Corporate Development, he is fascinated by science and driven by relevant medical solutions and their positive impact. Lourens is also the co-founder of Additio Investment Group and LSHAccess Foundation.

Lourens has a track record as advisor to multinational organisations and new ventures, working at the Board level around the globe with a focus on healthcare (MedTech/Digital Health) and previously retail. In his previous positions, he had the opportunity to build up organisations with operations in 24 countries and a strong revenue growth. Lourens is also a Board advisor and investment portfolio including diagnostics, therapeutics, surgery, medical AI, clinical software, and DTx/digital therapeutic.

Published on : Sun, 6 Feb 2022