

Sandata Announces Doug Fleishman as Chief Revenue Officer

Sandata is proud to announce the addition of Doug Fleishman, Chief Revenue Officer, to the team. As Chief Revenue Officer, Fleishman will drive Sandata's growth, lead sales and marketing efforts, help establish new partnerships, and drive strategic focus.

"I am thrilled to be joining Sandata," said Fleishman. "Sandata's depth and breadth of knowledge and expertise in the marketplace is second to none. Our mission to be a transformative organization driven by superior technology and experience aligns with my own passion to drive innovation and improvement."

Fleishman has more than 20 years of experience in the health care payer, provider, and employer markets and a proven track record of bringing value to clients. He has a strong background in management, business development, sales, and marketing. Prior to joining Sandata, Fleishman held senior positions at MedOrion, Advantmed, Wellframe and Verscend.

"Doug is a perfect complement to our team," said Emmet O'Gara, Sandata Chief Executive Officer. "He has a track record of delivering world-class solutions while becoming a trusted partner to his clients in the process. He will be a tremendous asset as we continue to build relationships and drive value."

Source: Sandata

Published on : Tue, 27 Sep 2022